essity. Inasmuch as I had been so intimately involved with the [redacted] project, I suggested that he ask Col. [redacted] to prepare a memo to Dr. Tietjen requesting a waiver based entirely upon a question of the best interest of the government, and accepting any previous professional diagnostic opinion rendered by Dr. Tietjen. There are many delicate aspects to this problem, although absolutely no pressure has been brought to bear on me; in summary, I feel that it would be reasonable to grant the waiver on a strictly TDY basis.
